

A Scout Elf Story

Hi, friend! Did you know we celebrate all kinds of holidays at the North Pole, just like you? One of our favorites is when we drink green hot cocoa and go searching for four-leaf clovers and rainbows! I have a funny little story about a good luck “charmer” that really tricked us all. Want to read it? Oops! That clever charmer must have swiped some of the words. Can you help us put them back in the right place?

It was almost St. _____ Day, and all of Santa’s Elf Pets and Scout Elf pals worked busily to bake, _____, and stack the shamrock _____ they’d made in Mrs. Claus’ Sweet Shop. Then they heard a giggle... and saw a flash of green. And with a zip-zap zoom, all the _____ cookies disappeared! The _____ wondered... Could it be _____?! The Scout Elves searched _____. The Elf Pets searched low... inside caves, behind _____ men, beyond snowbanks. Just then, they heard another _____. A fuzzy green _____ twitched from behind a giant pine _____. BOGIE! What a clever St. Patrick’s Day trickster! All of Santa’s _____ had a good laugh and, feeling luckier than a leprechaun with a pot of _____, shared the stack of _____. Together.
