- Self-management: resetting
- Relationship skills: coordinating roles
- Responsible decision-making: fixing things safely

Episode Touchpoints

- Razzle the Celebration Snowman encourages the Squad to shake off frustration with play, music and teamwork to rebuild the carrot launcher.

Talk & reflect (after viewing):

- "What went wrong? What did they try next?"
- "How did Razzle help the elves feel better?"
- "When something breaks at home, what's one thing we can do together?"

Try-it-together activities:

- Do-over dance: After a small mistake, pause for a 20-second family wiggle or clap-pattern—then try again. (Anchors resilience with movement)
- Celebrate effort: Make a "Try Board"—draw stars when someone tries a new step, not for perfection.
- Party planner play: Assign roles (Designer, Builder, Tester) to set up a snack or simple game. (Rotating roles builds flexibility.)

Interaction questions

- What special event were the Elf Pets Reindeer preparing for? (Supports recalling story details and understanding the goal of the episode.)
- Who did the Squad meet that loved to celebrate everything? (Builds character recognition and social understanding.)
